"Innocent Flirtations."

In many of our more recent novellettes, and in many of our leading literary papers of the day, we notice a marked tendency to treat with much indulgence and consideration that lane of social life generally termed flirtation. Nothing is more reprehensible than such a course as this. To speak of 'innocent flirtations,' 'harmless flirtations,' &c., is as untrue as it is inconsiderate. Why not as well speak of an innocent theft, or a harmless murder? It is not every one who understands what the words mean.— Some very silly young girls, just out of boarding school, consider it a sort of compliment to be called flirts. They blush and simper, and pretend to have just as many beaux as they can find, fresh fools to angle for them, little aware what desperate habits are forming their charmed circles around them, beyond which in a few years it will be out of their power to move.

One can bear to be cheated by a cloth merchant, or a grocer, although the transaction merits unlimited contempt; but to be deceived by the lips, and the eyes, the smiles and the speech of young hearts that should be free from intentional guilt, makes wounds that even time cannot heal. Heaven knows how many heart hardened men walk the earth, soured and unhappy, finding falsehood everywhere, looking crookedly upon all creations of harmony, and seeing distortion in every thing because their natures have been warped by some cruel deception. The victim of a flirt, in proportion to his singleness of nature, his wholesome and implicit faith in his kind, his generous unwarped sense of justice, and the breadth and depth of his love, oftentimes becomes the more morose, unyielding, woman-hating man. And many such do marry from prudential motives, often the fatal change, and lead their partners most unhappy lives.
 But young school girls—finished, accomplished women, are not the only flirts. To their absolute and eternal disgrace be it spoken, many married women are flirts. Not even the sacredness of the vows they have taken upon them, the trust which their husbands confide in them, nor the opinion of the world, will deter them from this most satanic love of vanity and misrule. Not even their babes, whose eyes rebuke them at every glance, and whose innocence is a continual prayer for their unworthy mothers, can wake them to a realization of the exceeding steep precipice upon whose brink they stand, swaying to their fall. The beginning of many a young girl's and married woman's fall may be traced to an "innocent flirtation."

There is a man out West who labors under the delusion that "Hon." before an office holder's name means "Honest."

The SURE WAY.—Douglas Jerrold says that the surest way to hit a woman's heart is to take aim at her neck.

INDEPENDENCE DAY IN JASPER.—On Monday last, the day observed in this place for the anniversary of our national independence, our patriotic citizens gave ample evidence that they duly appreciated that great event which the day is designed to commemorate. At an early hour our townsmen, actuated by an unwonted degree of patriotic fervor were all astir.— The stars and stripes were unfurled, cannons were firing, and high above all was heard in spirit stirring strains, some of the best national airs, by our fine brass band.

A splendid pole was procured and raised on the public square, immediately in front of the court house. Its elevation was accompanied with the most enthusiastic demonstrations—loud and continuous cheering—banners waving—cannon booming, and martial music sounding. As soon as the pole had attained its perpendicular, and the national flag, with Liberty inscribed upon its broad folds, was seen proudly waving from its summit, all repaired to the court house, where the Declaration of Independence was read by Dr. E. Stephenson, and a neat and appropriate address delivered by W. C. Adams, Esq.

In the evening there were two balls, where everything passed off pleasantly, and where those who during the day had not found it convenient to exercise their heads, made ample atonement by a vigorous use of their heels.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.—We hope to see a large delegation from every township at the Convention next Saturday week. If every township will send up a number of tried and true men as delegates, it will insure fairness and harmony of action, and the triumphant success of the ticket nominated. We understand that some of the townships failed to hold meetings on last Saturday. Well, there is plenty of time yet; let meetings be held and delegates appointed as soon as possible, and let the delegates come up to the Convention fully imbued with the pure spirit of Democracy, determined to nominate the best men for the various offices. The utility of Conventions is scarcely a debatable point.
 They concentrate action, and if the people but take them in hand, they cannot be ruled by a clique of demagogues, and the effect is to secure the services of our best and most competent men as public officers. It is true we all have our favorite candidates.
 This is but natural; but we should not let our preferences run away with our judgment; let us work earnestly and zealously for our favorites in the Convention, and when the nominations are made, let us show that we are good democrats, willing that the majority should rule, by working with the same zeal for the ticket, whether our favorites are a part of it or not, as we know that some one must be disappointed.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Isaac Newton in today's paper. He has just purchased a large stock of new drugs and other articles in his line, and being determined to dispose of them cheap, feeling sure that "a nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," he has taken the best means to accomplish his purpose, by letting hundreds of persons know through the "Courier" where to buy their drugs cheap. Give him a call.

We see by notices posted about town that Judge Hovey is to speak here to-morrow night. Sorry to see him wasting his time and energies in such a cause, for we can assure him it will do him no good in Dubois county. The Democracy here love their glorious living principles too well to be drawn off by a dead issue.

Howald looks without a space.

Democratic Meeting.

Pursuant to notice the democrats of Bainbridge township assembled at the court house, on Saturday, July 3d.

On motion, B. B. Edmonston was called to the Chair, and Henry A.
 Holthaus chosen Secretary.

On motion a committee of three was appointed to report suitable persons as delegates to the County Convention.

Messrs. S. Jerger, E. Stephenson, and S. J. Cromer were appointed said committee.

The committee reported the names of the following persons, and the report was adopted:

Charles Buchert, Jos. Ackerman, Reuben Mathias, Jos. Freedman, Sr., Wm. Mahin, Adolph Harter, Fred.
 Meschedy, Anthony Eckert, Mathias Keefer, Casper John, Jno. Mehlinger, John Opel, B. B. Edmonston, Peter Bridewiser, Jos. Sermersheim, Bernard Hurst, Martin Freedman, J. A.
 Wineinger, Michael Tennis, Jordan Sermersheim, Francis Brelage, A. C.
 Morgan, Cornelius Hurst and Michael Jochim.

On motion it resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Jasper Weekly Courier.

The meeting then adjourned.

B. B. EDMONSTON, Pres't.

H. A. HOLTHAUS, Sec'y.

THE CROPS.—Most of the wheat in this county is now cut, and the farmers tell us that, notwithstanding considerable injury by the rust and other causes, the yield is fully up to the average. The oats crop is nearly a complete failure, only an occasional field, on high ground, that is not destroyed by the rust. The corn looks remarkably well, and with a favorable season there will be a large crop. The yield of hay is said to be better than for several years.

Accounts of crops all over the State are very encouraging, and although the season is rather late, we can look forward with confidence to the "good time coming."

Governor Sibley, of the new State of Minnesota, in his inaugural address, which was delivered on Wednesday, the 2d instant, talks like a sensible man should in these days of political fanaticism. Read the subjoined extract:

Minnesota enters the Union as the 32d State. She extends a friendly hand to all her sisters, North and South, and gives them the assurance that she joins them ranks—not to provoke sectional discord or to engender strife—not to enlist in a crusade against such of them as differ from her in the character of their domestic institutions, but to promote harmony and good will and to lend her aid, on all occasions, in maintaining the integrity of the Union.

The Sepoys of India are still far from being subdued. The war is still carried on, the battles generally resulting in favor of the British, although they occasionally meet with reverses. But no sooner are the Sepoys defeated and driven from one place than they appear in another in strong force, in some cases estimated at 70,000.
 By nearly every foreign arrival we hear of marching and countermarching, of towns occupied, of battles fought, of victories lost and won, of rebellion quelled in one quarter and of new uprisings in another. In short the war is far from being ended, and the British Government begins to realize that the forced occupation of India does not pay expenses.

Active preparations are making in New York for the transportation of President Monroe's remains to Virginia. The New York National Guards have offered to take charge of the transfer, and bear the expenses.

According to Monsieur Genie, a French savant, the sex of eggs can be distinguished. All eggs containing the germ of males have wrinkles on their smaller end, while female eggs are equally smooth at both extremities.

THE LADIES' PLATFORM.—A young American lady being asked by a politician, which party she was most in favor of, replied that she preferred a wedding party.

July 9, 1858. JOHN MANN, P. M.

Why is the Demand so Great for DR. J. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM?

Because it will, in all cases, safely and effectually cure that much dreaded scourge of the west—Chills, Fever and ague—without fail, and in cases will counteract the poison of Malaria, of which fact thousands do testify; and, unlike all other nostrums, it is only recommended for one class of diseases, and as a tonic it is unsurpassed. We will offer a few evidences of its worth, by men of influence and high standing.

PHILADELPHIA, Ill., Sept. 20, 1857.

Dr. Mann—Dear Sir: For several years past I have used your Ague Balsam in my daily practice, and have closely observed its effects in hundreds of cases, and in no case has it failed to produce the most happy effect. I can most cheerfully recommend it as a certain specific for chills, fever and ague, and malarial diseases.

Truly Yours, H. AUSTIN, M. D.

MARSHALL, Mich., Feb. 11, 1857.

Dr. Mann & Co—I have sold a large amount of your Ague Balsam in this vicinity and from my personal knowledge of it, I believe it the best remedy for chills, fever and ague that has ever been sold in our state.

Respectfully Yours, O. A. HYDE.

ASHTABULA, Ohio, Jan. 1st, 1858.

Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co—Gents: In canvassing the states of Ohio and Michigan for the sale of the different remedies of which we have control, our attention has been called to observe the great name that your ague balsam has gained for itself in every place where sold. It really seems to be the people's own remedy, and its sales more rapid than all others. It is destined to supersede all other ague remedies in the market.

Very truly yours, A. S. HENDRY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23, 1858.

Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co—Gents: I have at my house in St. Louis sold your ague balsam some three years, and have carefully observed its effects in curing, and must in all candor say, I do not believe its equal exists in all the world of medicines. To my personal knowledge it has cured permanently every time, and I have known it used after all other remedies have been tried in vain, with the most happy result; and what is more remarkable I have never known a case but what remained cured, for at least that season. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a perfect triumph over chills and fever.

Respectfully Yours, DR. O. J. WOOD.
